

Procurement Policy

Gartner Rose is committed to working with quality subcontractors to ensure the best possible outcomes with zero safety incidents. In order to achieve this, all spend is to follow a process that affords procedural fairness, and ensures the best organisation is selected for the works.

The criteria used for this assessment includes:

- Past performance
- References
- Building Code 2016 Compliance
- Social criteria
- Policies and procedures in place
- Contract compliance
- Sustainability performance and initiatives
- Safety Performance and initiatives
- Other information deemed relevant

Each Subcontractor and Supplier is to be reviewed at least annually to ascertain their current ranking in relation to the above criteria. This information is to be considered during all tender reviews.

Gartner Rose is committed to delivering value for money to its clients and all procurement activity is to support this aim. The procedures and processes which this policy informs are to ensure fairness, equity and value for money is preserved at all times.

All procurement is to reviewed and signed off by the Board. Financial delegation shall not occur unless it can be evidenced and assured that the principles of fairness, equity and value for money shall not be eroded in so doing.

Gartner Rose is committed to building the capability of its' suppliers and subcontractors and will utilise the procurement activity to add value to the industry as a whole.

Endorsed by:

Daniel Rose
Managing Director